Bay East REALTORS® Foundation Announces 2024 Scholarship Recipients

Pleasanton, CA / August 14, 2024 - The Bay East Association of REALTORS® Foundation, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, recently announced their 2024 educational scholarship recipients. Ten East Bay students were awarded a total of $15,000 for the 2024-2025 school year:

Gabrielle Carpio, UC Santa Cruz
Colene Agbo, University of California, Los Angeles
Jordan Sheehan, University of California, Los Angeles
Asia Manuels, UC Irvine
Laura Khuu, UC Davis
Alexa Piscil, UC Berkeley
Hillary Khuu, UC Berkeley
Euleena Trinh, University of California, Los Angeles
Anja Weiss, Chapman University
Sariah Johnson, Howard University

The Foundation was established in 1978 to provide financial support for education and charitable needs in Alameda County and Contra Costa County. Since launching the scholarship program in 2015, the Foundation has awarded approximately $215,000 in scholarships and grants to more than 110 students pursuing higher education.

“Every year we are amazed at the level of candidates that apply for the Bay East Foundation Scholarship,” said Curtis Fleming, Foundation President. This year was no different and we see it as a privilege to help the future leaders in our society with their educational dreams.”

Applications for the 2025-2026 scholarships will be open starting March 1, 2025. This opportunity is available to students who have a minimum GPA of 3.25, reside primarily in Alameda County or Contra Costa County, and are either currently enrolled in or have been accepted to a qualifying educational institution for the upcoming school year. For more information about the Bay East Foundation's scholarship program, please visit www.bayeast.org/foundation.

The Bay East Association of REALTORS® Foundation is also seeking new Trustees. Community members, business owners, and civic leaders from Alameda County and Contra Costa County who are passionate about education and community engagement are invited to apply to serve.
