Become a mentor – help someone discover a career in real estate

NAR is excited to announce they are now accepting applications for mentors and mentees for the 2022 NAR Spire Mentorship Program. Spire aims to spark interest in the industry among mentees from all backgrounds, providing expert guidance and access to career opportunities, and generational wealth-building. As industry influencers who are motivated to strengthen our real estate profession, this is a perfect opportunity for you to give back, refine your own skills and networks, and shape the future. Apply to become a mentor or encourage new agents to apply as a mentee before May 31, 2022.

Implicit Bias Training for License Renewal

The requirements for license renewal in 2023 now include an interactive Fair Housing and Implicit Bias component. C.A.R's Free 45 hour CE package for members includes the required interactive Fair Housing and Implicit Bias courses.

Summary of Requirements:

- Licensees with a renewal date of 1/1/23 or later
Must submit CE coursework that includes the interactive Fair Housing and Implicit Bias coursework. If the licensee has completed their 45 hours already with the former package and old coursework, they will be required to take these two courses also.
- Licensees with a renewal date prior to 1/1/23
May submit the new coursework in Implicit Bias and the Interactive Fair Housing for credit and it will be accepted even though these courses are not required prior to 1/1/23
