Your Monthly Friday Update

---

Listing Presentations, Buyer Wants and Needs and Lots of Networking at AIMM

The Alameda INFORUM and Marketing Meeting (AIMM) is back in person at Windermere Properties South Shore Center in Alameda. On March 14 at 9am, AIMM will include listing presentations and buyers' wants and needs. Listings may be presented if they are not on tour as long as they are in the MLS. David Stark, Bay East Chief Public Affairs and Communications Officer, will be the guest speaker and will make a presentation about local real estate market and economic trends. To participate as a meeting sponsor, please contact Leah Nishi.

School District to Discontinue Grades 6, 7, and 8 at Bay Farm School

The Alameda Unified School District is phasing out grades 6, 7, and 8 at Bay Farm School. The decision was made during the February 14 Alameda Board of Education meeting. The phased closure will end new enrollment in grades 6, 7, and 8 while allowing current students to continue attending. More information is available on the AUSD website

Alameda County Eviction Moratorium Update

The Alameda County Board of Supervisors may be taking action on the on-going rental housing moratorium and three new rental housing ordinances during their February 28 meeting. For more information about these issues, or if you are interested in testifying during the hybrid Board of Supervisors meeting, please contact David Stark.
