

The voice of Real Estate in Alameda for over 100 years.

Your Monthly Friday Update

Legislative Day is Back - Take the REALTOR® Voice to Sacramento May 3

The California Association of REALTORS® Legislative Day in Sacramento is Wednesday, May 3. This is your chance to take the REALTOR® Party message to our state elected officials. More information and registration is here. The registration deadline is April 14. A group of Alameda REALTORS® are planning on taking the Amtrack Capitol Corridor train from Jack London Square to Sacramento. For more information, please contact David Stark.

Foundation Scholarship Applications Open Now

The Bay East Foundation is committed to supporting the next generation of leaders. Scholarship applications are now available for anyone interested in furthering their education. Apply now for the chance to receive financial support and guidance as you pursue your goals. Bay East membership is not required! Send to your clients, friends, family, and neighbors. Deadline to apply is April 30. Apply here.

AIMM Marketing Meeting

The Alameda INFORUM and Marketing Meeting (AIMM) is back in person at Windermere Properties South Shore Center in Alameda. On April 11 at 9am, AIMM will include listing presentations and buyers' wants and needs. Andrew Thomas, City Planner of Alameda, will be the guest speaker. To participate as a meeting sponsor, please contact Leah Nishi.

Alameda Local Government Relations Committee (LGRA) Meeting April 14

Join the monthly Alameda Local Government Relations Committee (LGRA) meeting on April 14 at 10am. Contact Bay East staff for more information including the meeting location.

Bay East Association of REALTORS®
7021 Koll Center Parkway, Pleasanton
925.730.4060 | bayeast.org