

Government affairs update for the week of September 17, 2023

Learn How Local Government Works and How to Make it Work Better

REALTORS® can earn a professional certificate while learning how local government works and how to get involved.

The California Association of REALTORS® Center for California Real Estate in partnership with Pepperdine University’s Davenport Institute for Public Engagement and Civic Leadership is offering Local Government & Community: Partnering for Success a 6-week online course that covers the mechanics of local government, how policies and regulations are created, how it’s funded, and the important role REALTORS® can play.

The course is free to REALTORS®. The next series begins Oct. 4 at from 2 to 4:30pm and continues every Wednesday afternoon through Nov. 8.

Participants who attend each course and complete some additional work are entitled to receive a certificate.

If you have any questions about Bay East advocacy activities or any government-related real estate issues you want Bay East to research, contact David Stark, Bay East Chief Public Affairs and Communications Officer.

