REALTORS® Help End Federal Shutdown

The latest episode of the National Association of REALTORS® (NAR) Advocacy Scoop podcast digs into how REALTOR advocacy helped end the record-breaking Federal government shutdown.

Hosts Shannon McGahn and Patrick Newton share how NAR was one of the first trade organizations to help Congress understand how the shutdown was impacting housing, homeownership and local economies. They also unpack what the November 2025 election results say about shifting political dynamics across the nation.
