Pleasanton, California (February 4, 2022) – Sheila Cunha of Legacy Real Estate and Associates in Pleasanton has been installed as the 2022 President of the Bay East Association of REALTORS® (Bay East). An intimate installation event for Ms. Cunha and other Bay East leaders was held January 31.

Cunha’s focus for 2022 will be promoting the Bay East core values: Communication, Integrity, Vision, Innovation and Leadership and helping Bay East members succeed. She has 20 years of experience in the real estate profession and served on the Bay East Executive, Local Government Relations, and Political Activities committees. She served on the Castro Valley Municipal Advisory Committee. She also serves on the California Association of REALTORS® Board of Directors.

Members of the 2022 Bay East Board of Directors were also installed at the February 1 event. Each member has significant experience in real estate transactions and organized real estate, and is well equipped to lead the REALTOR® community during 2022.
