

Take Action

The Alameda County Board of Supervisors wants a new eviction moratorium ordinance that could make it impossible to provide safe, affordable and stable rental housing and could trigger rent strikes. Please ask your agents to respond to the Call for Action today.

Broker Forum - Reopening Brokerage Offices

Last Thursday, brokers met virtually to discuss and share how and when their offices may open and what that would look like. A poll was conducted during the meeting and the results may be of interest:

How enthusiastic are your agents about going in to work out of the brokerage office?

- 60% - Most prefer to continue working from home offices
- 26% - Very few come to the office unless meeting with a client
- 7% - The majority want to come back into the office
- 7% - Most of the agents do not have a dedicated desk, therefore not at all concerned about being in the office.

Jenny Li, C.A.R. Assistant General Counsel gave a brief presentation and wanted all brokers to have the following information:
