Predictions from a Real Estate Tech Analyst

To help members stay up to date on the latest real estate tech trends and to hear one industry expert's tech predictions for the year, C.A.R. invited Chris Linsell, senior real estate writer, coach, and real estate technology analyst for theclose.com, to present at its recent Tech Xperience: A Virtual Summit.

After providing information about blockchain, NFTs and the metaverse, and how it all relates to real estate, Linsell then provided his tech predictions for the real estate industry this year.
