

Government Affairs Action for the week of April 12, 2020

by David Stark, Public Affairs Director, Bay East Association of REALTORS®

Masks are Mandatory in Alameda and Contra Costa counties

Effective Wednesday, April 22, anyone working at or visiting an essential business in Alameda or Contra Costa counties must wear a face covering.

The Alameda County face mask rules are here and the Contra Costa County rules are here.

Bay East is monitoring the other San Francisco Bay Area counties for similar requirements and will provide updates on the Bay East website and the Insider email newsletter.

Bay East Virtual Town Hall April 23

The next Bay East "virtual" town hall is April 23 from 10 to 11:15 am. The event will feature Leslie Appleton-Young, chief economist for the California Association of REALTORS®, who will report on state and national economic issues impacting home ownership and real estate transactions.

Register for the Town Hall here.

Meanwhile, check in with the Bay East COVID-19 clearinghouse: an updated guide with information about a variety of services.

If you have any questions or any government-related real estate issues you want Bay East to research, please contact Bay East staff.
