

Government affairs action for the week of February 6, 2022

Get in Touch with Your Inner Housing Policy Nerd

Interested in housing policy and residential real estate trends?

The new Center for California Real Estate (CCRE) website will definitely scratch your itch for housing information.

The CCRE website features an array of resources including links to executive reports, recordings of panel discussions and special events, and how C.A.R. is working with a diverse group of partners to address critical housing issues across the state.

The California Association of REALTORS® launched the CCRE to provide insights about issues impacting real estate in California and your business as a real estate professional.

Register for the 2022 Virtual Legislative Day

Take your virtual REALTOR® voice to Sacramento on March 2. Register today for the Legislative Briefing and other events. Details about virtual legislator office visits with Senators Glazer, Skinner and Wieckowski and Assembly members Bauer-Kahan, Bonta, Lee and Quirk are coming soon.

If you have any questions about Bay East advocacy activities or any government-related real estate issues you want Bay East to research, please contact David Stark, Bay East Chief Public Affairs and Communications Officer.
