Pleasanton, CA (March 27, 2018) – The Bay East Association of REALTORS® Young Professional Network (YPN) teamed up with the Alameda County Food Bank to support their mission of pursuing a hunger-free community.

On March 26, Bay East YPN and other Bay East REALTOR® and Affiliate members, joined other volunteers to sort and pack almost 21,000 pounds of fruit and vegetables. Their effort will enable the Food Bank to distribute 17,000 meals.

"At Bay East, we like to create a positive change in our industry, and one of the main facets of our Young Professionals Network is getting involved with the communities we serve," said Elisa Chao, 2018 Chair of the Bay East YPN. "Working with the Food Bank allows us to help out those in need and also get a great team building experience out of it," said Chao.

"Pursuing a hunger-free community is a huge movement that is possible with the help of a supportive community and group of volunteers coming together to help make a difference," said Alex Kim, Chair of the YPN Give Back event. "Giving back has always been a part of my life since I was young. I feel that every time I do something positive for others, the favor is returned in some way or some form," said Kim.

The Alameda County Community Food Bank works with more than 18,000 volunteers every year to ensure that all children, adults and seniors in Alameda County always have access to a free meal.

The Bay East YPN Committee is the voice and advocate for Bay East's young REALTORS® and Affiliates. They support the development of young real estate professionals through association participation, career advancement, community involvement, and cultivation of future leaders.

The Bay East Association of REALTORS® is a professional trade association serving more than 5,000 real estate professionals throughout the San Francisco Bay Area by providing programs and services to enhance their ability to conduct business with integrity and competence. Bay East offers access to the Multiple Listing Service, professional development training, advocacy to protect private property rights and promote home ownership and a variety of networking opportunities and events.
